

6516205650.txt

Xm radio service is paid monthly by my husband and I. The service we pay for includes weather and traffic information for our commutes to the city. The regular radio stations contain too much talk and commercials. That is why we pay for satellite radio. It is a shame that companies are trying to take away from something that WE ARE PAYING FOR!!!!